

STEEPLE NEWS

Centennial United Methodist Church at Ivy

March 2018

Throughout March, we will continue to look at the Threads of Grace in our Wesleyan heritage as we investigate the questions: Where did we come from? Who are we? What do we believe? Whether this is all new to you or a good refresher, it is my prayer that as we engage in our Lenten series, you will draw closer to God as you identify the threads of God's grace in your own story.

Lent is a wonderful time to dedicate yourself to a new spiritual practice or to re-commit yourself to an old favorite. Forgot to start at the beginning of Lent? No problem! There is no time like the present to get started. Carve out a bit of time each day to intentionally spend with God. Use your bible, a devotional, or just pray what is on your heart as if you are talking to your best friend. God does not require our perfection, but God desires a relationship with each and every one of us. This Lent, I hope you will spend time with God and develop practices which will extend beyond this season and into a deeper relationship with our Creator.

As we look forward to Easter, there is a spirit of rebirth and renewal in the air. It is an exciting time for Centennial UMC at Ivy, as we vision for the future and dream about how we will live into the mission God has placed in our hands. It has been such a blessing to hear stories of the treasured memories and the ways that being involved at Centennial UMC at Ivy has impacted your lives through our peace circles. I appreciate all of your support and dedication to the ministries of Centennial, and I look forward to continued partnership in service to God. Please continue to be in prayer for our congregation at this pivotal moment in our history as we discern the ways we are being called to know Christ and make Christ known in our community.

Centennial UMC at Ivy Full-Time Pastoral Appointment Update

We have been making great progress in our efforts to transition Centennial from a part-time pastoral appointment to a full-time pastoral appointment. We have had several meetings, received many questions, shared our visions, and worked together to strengthen the foundations and cornerstones of Centennial. On February 11th we engaged in a peace circle exercise in which members of the congregation met in small groups to discuss their love for Centennial, what they see in Centennial's future, and the full-time pastoral appointment initiative. The positivity and energy which has come from this exercise will propel us forward into our next steps.

Our next steps will include a Charge Conference and a supplemental financial campaign for 2018. The supplemental financial campaign will be to address the increased financial obligations that will be a part of a full-time pastoral appointment. While the Charge Conference is not yet scheduled, we will have the supplemental going before the Charge Conference occurs. You can expect to see more details on the scheduling of the Charge Conference, and on the supplemental financial campaign, in the near future.

In this age of constantly evolving technology and communities, we must remember our core purpose. That purpose is to give all glory to God, and to help others grow as disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. God's vision for Centennial and our vision for Centennial are one and the same, to know Christ and make Christ known around the world. While our core purpose and vision will always remain, we must evolve in the ways we strive to fulfill that core purpose and vision. This is an extraordinary time in the life of Centennial. Find joy and comfort in all of the ways God is present here at Centennial!

Matthew 28:18-20

Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things I have commanded you. And, remember, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

* "Today you are you! That is truer than true. There is no one alive who is you-er than you."

* "A person's a person, no matter how small."

* "The sun did not shine. It was too wet to play. So, we sat in the house all that cold, cold wet day."

* "I do not like green eggs and ham. I do not like them, Sam-I-Am."
